

Corporate Trusts

Corporate trustees administering cross-border debt need highly skilled advisers. Hogan Lovells boasts a market-leading trustee practice with experience helping trustees in a variety of challenging situations.

Whether that is getting a trustee onboard a new deal in a tight timeframe, or resolving complex disputes, we can deliver. We have helped trustees navigate some of the most high-profile defaults and workouts.

We know the concerns trustees and agents face. We find solutions that work for all sides. We advise across the whole spectrum of capital markets products, whether corporate finance or structured debt.

On new issuances and existing transactions, our global reach, pragmatic approach, and knowledge serve your needs around the world.

Latest thinking and events

Published Works

Corporate governance and directors' duties in Singapore: overview

Thomson Reuters Practical Law

Hogan Lovells Publications

“Noteholder or Not a Holder?”

Debt Capital Markets - Global Insights - Spring 2020

Awards and Rankings

Hogan Lovells' Corporate Trust and Agency Team Recognized For Work on 2018 Award Winning Transactions

Contacts

Andrew Carey,
London

Kit Johnson,
London

Robert Ripin,
New York

Andy Ferris,
Singapore

Practices

Capital Markets
