Biography

Arturo Tiburcio brings more than 25 years of experience in the public and private sectors to the Tax team at Hogan Lovells. He focuses on tax consultation, audit tax procedures related to income tax, value-added taxes (VAT), and international tax issues, including double tax treaties and transfer pricing.

He is a graduate of the Universidad Panamericana with a specialty in tax law and also attended an international taxation course at the Universidad de Santiago de Compostela. He started his professional career in a boutique tax law firm then joined the Ministry of Finance, where he was involved in international tax practice. After 16 years as a tax partner in Barrera, Siqueiros y Torres Landa (now Hogan Lovells BSTL), in March 2013 he founded his own professional practice called Tiburcio Abogados. He rejoined Hogan Lovells BSTL as a tax partner in April of 2015.

He is member of the Mexican Bar Association and International Fiscal Association (IFA), Mexican Branch. He has been recognized by Chambers Latin America as a well-rounded practitioner with strong litigation and consulting skills.
