Biography

With 18 years of in-house general counsel experience, Randy Segal brings a unique perspective to every matter she handles, both as outside counsel and as someone who has walked in her clients' shoes.

With a focus on satellite, wireless, drone, and technology transactions, Randy provides commercially practical solutions in industries where technological change is ever-present. Randy's practice often involves multi-level chess games, where every move needs to be considered from a multitude of angles to be successful.

Randy's practice is reflected in three segments. First, as co-leader of the Space and Satellite practice, Randy handles transactions from day-to-day matters to the most complex international transactions for industry operators, investors, and technology providers. She has been involved in taking companies public, advising on acquisitions, divestitures, and complex cross-border joint ventures, as well as large satellite system development, deployments, and funding.

Second, as adviser to technology investors and their portfolio companies, Randy has advised on transactions focused on big data analytics, wireless systems, spectrum licenses, artificial intelligence, drone

Accolades

"Efficient, responsive, insightful."

Legal 500 US: Media, Technology, and Telecoms, 2018

"Randy is extremely bright and has a remarkable knowledge of the law and an equally remarkable capture of the law, applying the law with...business objectives in mind. She doesn't just tell you what you can and can't do, but offers a strategic fit to [y]our business needs."

Chambers USA

"Randy is just the best, she's super energetic, super creative, super fast and her throughput is amazing — you need someone because you have a problem to solve and she's just there right away telling you what to do. She is also great to interact with, a ball of energy and one of the great things she does is develop warm relationships with the clients she works with."

Chambers USA

"Randy Segal and Steven Kaufman are both brilliant individual lawyers."

As a team they are amazing, filling each other out in a magnificent manner. They bring an extra dimension to legal and commercial advice, great service, pinpointed input and anything I expect from a team of lawyers."

Legal 500 US

"Randy Segal is extremely well connected with businesses in the market, with commercial insight that was amazing. She's a sharp legal mind with great practical capabilities."

Legal 500 US

"Randy Segal is our go-to person. She has worked as an in-house attorney which gives her an edge. She's good at talking to the management of companies and she's been able to mediate many of the issues that come in because of that expertise."

Chambers USA

"She is very commercial, responsive and hard-working," reports one client, adding: "She is creative in finding solutions that will work for all parties to get a deal done and is very forward-thinking in dealing with strategic concerns of ours."

Chambers USA

"She is very talented and capable, and is a trusted adviser on satellite matters."
