Biography

Angus is a partner based in London and a member of the construction and engineering disputes team. He has a strong interest in supporting the firm's Asian clients within the construction/engineering sector, and recently delivered a series of client seminars in Tokyo, explaining the 2017 updates to the FIDIC forms of contract.

Having trained with the firm, Angus qualified into the construction and engineering disputes team in 2007.

From 2010 - 2012 he was based in the Hogan Lovells Tokyo office, for most of that time on secondment to Mitsubishi Heavy Industries, Ltd (MHI) as International Counsel. While at MHI he provided dispute avoidance, regulatory and contract negotiation/drafting advice on more than 90 different projects including nuclear power, renewable power, conventional thermal power, chemical plants, rail transportation systems and other heavy machinery projects.

Angus returned to the firm as a partner in 2017, following five years working in the London office of Mitsubishi Hitachi Power Systems Europe, Ltd (MHPS-EU), latterly as General Counsel and Company Secretary in charge of a team in London and Duisburg, Germany.
