

Jon M. Talotta

Partner

Northern Virginia

Washington, D.C.

Biography

Jon Talotta is global co-leader for the firm's Securities, Shareholder, and M&A Litigation group, as well as the Northern Virginia office practice manager for Litigation, Arbitration, and Employment.

He has over two decades of experience in corporate governance, securities, cybersecurity, consumer protection, technology, and other business issues. He has represented U.S. and multinational clients from a variety of industries in trial and appellate courts across the United States, in arbitrations and mediations, and in administrative proceedings and investigations before numerous federal and state agencies.

Jon regularly counsels clients on information governance and risk issues. He publishes and speaks on topics involving U.S. and international litigation, discovery, and information governance.

Jon is a member of the Boards of Directors of the Mid-Atlantic Innocence Project, Gideon's Promise, and the Northern Virginia Chapter of the Federal Bar Association. He is a devoted pro bono litigator, working on actual innocence cases and civil justice impact suits, and his recent successes include obtaining exonerations for two individuals who spent a combined 30 years in prison for crimes they did not
