

China: Early emergence from the COVID-19 crisis may spark an M&A boom

15 April 2020

Hogan Lovells Deal Dynamics

Deal activity plunged in the first quarter of 2020 on U.S.-China tensions and the coronavirus outbreak, but Hogan Lovells Corporate partner Liang Xu believes the pieces are falling into place for Chinese buyers and sellers to rebound once the health outlook and the markets stabilize.

Read More: China: Early emergence from the COVID-19 crisis may spark an M&A boom

Contacts

Liang Xu

Partner

> Read the full article online