

Antitrust and Competition Litigation

Claims in multiple jurisdictions. Class actions. Treble damages. Injunctions. The stakes in competition litigation are sky high and claims are increasingly common.

We have global reach with antitrust and competition litigators in key jurisdictions — the United Kingdom, the Netherlands, Germany, and the United States. The team brings real expertise and a coordinated approach to local and international cases.

We advise on claims arising from all forms of antitrust and competition law infringements, including cartels and abuse of dominance. We act in class actions, claims for injunctions and interim relief, and triple damages.

If your company may become involved in a competition dispute, contact the team that will work to optimise the outcome. Hogan Lovells.

Representative experience

Large corporate group in English and Dutch Courts defending several multi-party antitrust damages claims arising from cartel in the gas insulated switchgear market.

Two airlines in antitrust damages claims brought in relation to a cartel in the air cargo market in the UK, the Netherlands, Germany, and the U.S.

Acted for a defendant in a series of follow-on damages claims brought in the English and Dutch Courts relating to the

Contacts

Nicholas Heaton,
London

Megan Dixon,
San Francisco

Practices

Antitrust and Competition
Commercial Litigation

paraffin wax cartel.

Global financial institution in US antitrust class actions alleging a conspiracy by some of the largest banks to restrict competition in credit default swap market.

We advised an international freight company on a claim in the U.S. regarding the ocean carriers shipping cartel.

Latest thinking and events

Insights

Practical Implications of the Whistleblowing Directive: Compliance, Data Protection and Employment

Analysis

Italian Competition Authority proposes pro-competitive legislative changes to the Italian Government

News

The treasure hunt is on... Data access claims after the reform of German competition law

News

Supreme Court lowers the bar for certification of Class Actions in the UK

News

Like the movies... – The ECJ's Paramount judgment (C-132/19 P)

Webinar

What's next for antitrust in 2021