

Adam Parry

Counsel
London

Biography

Knowledge is important for all lawyers and in the current, ever-changing environment for tax lawyers in particular. Adam Parry, a Counsel knowledge lawyer, is at the core of the firm's UK tax know-how and training for both the tax team and its clients. He is the go-to person for three things – his UK tax knowledge, his research skills and his knowledge management experience.

Adam's tax knowledge is wide-ranging, spanning public and private M&A, equity and debt capital markets, bank lending, funds and private equity. This has been built up over his time as a professional support lawyer and in advising a range of financial institutions, funds and corporates.
