

State Aid

A lot can be at stake for companies when it comes to EU State aid law. Important investments into infrastructure and R&D. Tax rulings. M&A transactions.

The lawyers at Hogan Lovells will guide you through the jungle of EU State aid law — regardless of whether your company is incorporated in the EU or abroad. We help you understand the implications of EU State aid on your business and how you can benefit from government funding in a compliant way. We also represent clients in EU Commission investigations and national and EU Court proceedings, both as beneficiaries and as complainants regarding aid for competitors.
