

Real Estate Private Equity

The lawyers at Hogan Lovells offer clients an integrated, cross-border perspective on complex real estate matters.

We help focused real estate opportunistic equity funds, real estate securities hedge funds, and others negotiate their investments in the real estate market, whether structured through investments in limited partnerships, units, or other special purpose vehicles. Our team gives advice on investments, acquisitions, disposals, financings, tax matters, REITs, joint ventures, opco/propco splits, sale and leasebacks, secondary transactions investments, secondaries, and more.

We work together as a team from across the firm's corporate, finance, real estate, and tax areas to provide pragmatic legal and business advice. When you have found the right opportunity in the real estate market. We can help you execute it.

Representative experience

General Electric on the sale of its global real estate equity and debt portfolio business to funds managed by Blackstone Group and to Wells Fargo.

Ivanhoé Cambridge on its disposal of a European portfolio of 18 hotels to Apollo Global Management.

Latest thinking and events

Hogan Lovells Publications

Brexit: potential consequences of Brexit on key legislations affecting real estate

Practices

Private Equity

Real Estate

Real Estate Finance
